

1. What is internet? Write the characteristics and applications of internet?

Internet is a network of computers linking many different types of computers all over the world.

APPLICATIONS OF INTERNET

- World Wide Web (WWW)
- Electronic mail (e-mail)
- File Transfer Protocol (FTP)
- Telnet (i.e., log-in to the computer located remotely)
- Internet Relay Chat (IRC) (Real time video chatting)

CHARACTERISTICS OF INTERNET

Accessibility

An Internet is a global service and accessible to all.

Easy to Use

it can be easily learned and used. It is easy to develop.

Interaction with Other Media

Internet service has a high degree of interaction with other media. For example, News and other magazine

Low Cost

The development and maintenance cost of Internet service are comparatively low.

Flexibility of Communication

Communication through Internet is flexible enough. It facilitates communication through text, voice, and video too.

Security

Last but not the least, Internet facility has to a certain extent helped the security system both at the individual and national level with components such as CCTV camera, etc.

2. What is WWW?

It is a world wide web .it is an interconnected system of public pages accessible through the internet.